

JEWISH GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY OF MONTREAL

in association with the

JEWISH PUBLIC LIBRARY

is pleased to announce as our guest speaker:

Jeffrey Gorney
"Remembered Voices"

The meeting will be held on

Monday, April 13, 2015
7:30 pm

Gelber Conference Centre
5151 Cote Ste-Catherine / 1 Carré Cummings

"This talk explores oral history as a vital path to discovering Jewish roots. Drawing on his recent book, "Mysterious Places: Journey. Memoir. Quest", Jeffrey Gorney tells how vibrant family recollections of a Romanian shtetl inspired him. He will discuss his journeys to Romania: first, shortly after the Romanian Revolution; then, years later as photographer on assignment in a vastly changed nation. He will relate what it means to actually visit ancestral lands, Jewish identity before and after World War II, and how Romanian pogroms helped shape the Holocaust."

Following Jeffrey's talk, there will be a sale and signing of his book

Everyone is welcome!
